

10.50 – 11.30	11.35 – 12.15	14.20 – 15.00
A1 – Stroke Imaging – targets, optimism and pragmatism – Dr Kneale Metcalf, Clinical Lead for Stroke Medicine, Norfolk & Norwich University Hospital Foundation Trust	B1 - Ipswich TIA 7 day service – Lisa Motley, Francesca Friston and Peter Phillips, The Ipswich Hospital NHS Trust	C1 - Stroke Imaging – targets, optimism and pragmatism – Dr Kneale Metcalf, Clinical Lead for Stroke Medicine, Norfolk & Norwich University Hospital Foundation Trust
A2 - Six Month Reviews - approach taken and early conclusions to be drawn – Esther Bolton, Head of Long Term Conditions and Community Services, NHS Bedfordshire	B2 - Vocational Rehab – Carol Hannaford – OT, Cambridge Community Stroke team	C2 - Information and evidence on the cost benefits of helping stroke survivors to be more independent – Alex Stewart, Regional Head of Operations, The Stroke Association
A3 - Vocational Rehab – Carol Hannaford – OT, Cambridge Community Stroke team	B3 - Sheffield University working group on aphasia – Aileen Donald Speech and Language Therapist - Policy and Practice Lead, The Stroke Association	C3 - Ipswich TIA 7 day service – Lisa Motley, Francesca Friston and Peter Phillips, The Ipswich Hospital NHS Trust
A4 - Suicide, depression and stroke - The Oliver Zangwill Centre	B4 - Outcome Measures – Andrew Bateman, NeuroRehab Manager, Cambridge Community Services, Oliver Zangwill Centre	C4 - Sheffield University working group on aphasia – Aileen Donald Speech and Language Therapist - Policy and Practice Lead, The Stroke Association
A5 – Embedding user involvement in the stroke pathway- a case study on Salford - Chris Larkin, Deputy Head of Operations North West, The Stroke Association and Frank Redfern, stroke survivor, volunteer and community reporter	B5 - The Cambridgeshire Partnership Model – a coordinated multi-disciplinary approach, funded by a variety of partners. The project provides services to survivors and carers in a community setting centred around psychological and communication support and general information and advice – Dr Catherine Ford, Chartered Clinical Psychologist and Sallie-ann Nicol, Information, Advice and Support Coordinator, The Stroke Association	C5 - Outcome Measures – Andrew Bateman, NeuroRehab Manager, Cambridge Community Services, Oliver Zangwill Centre
A6 - WHO International Classification of Functioning – how do we apply it as therapists - Carole Walters Lead OT, Lister Stroke Unit, East & North Herts NHS Trust	B6 - Navigating adult social care – Susan Street, Commissioning Manager, Community Wellbeing, Health and Community Services, Hertfordshire County Council	C6 - The Norwich Direct CT Pilot – Dan Phillips, Paramedic, Stroke/TIA Care Lead, East of England Ambulance Service

A7 – Telemed Project – how does it work and what has it achieved – Lynda Sibson, Telemed Project Manager	B7 - Impact of consultant led daily MDTs- Dr Ramachandran Sivakumar – RDE Colchester Hospital University NHS Foundation Trust	C7 – How stroke can affect the sight – Paula Bird, Rehabilitation Worker for the Visually impaired, Cam Sight
A8 - Commissioning Stroke Services – Pam Green, Assistant Director of Commissioning, North East Essex	B8 – Telemed Project – how does it work and what has it achieved – Lynda Sibson, Telemed Project Manager	C8 - – Mind the Gap – ways to enhance therapy provision in stroke rehabilitation – forty five minutes of therapy and seven day services – Jill Lockhart, National Improvement Lead, NHS Improvement - Stroke
A9 – Benefits of the Early Supported Discharge Model – Laura Parker - Early Supported Discharge Manager for Stroke, North East Essex	B9 – Mind the Gap – ways to enhance therapy provision in stroke rehabilitation – forty five minutes of therapy and seven day services – Jill Lockhart, National Improvement Lead, NHS Improvement - Stroke	